MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support
SUBJECT : Office of Personnel Report - Week Ending 20 February 1970

2. Military Career Trainee Strength Reduction: During January and February 1970, the strength of Army and Marine Corps officers remaining in the Career Trainee Program was reduced from 11 to 9. Three additional losses and one gain will occur between March and June 1970 leaving the end of the Fiscal Year 1970 strength at 5 Army and 2 Marine Corps officers.

3. Reserve Affairs: On Monday, 16 February 1970, Major General Alan J. Armstrong, Director, Marine Corps Development Center, Quantico, Virginia, addressed the members of the JMDTC at the Headquarters auditorium for the Annual Marine Corps presentation. General Armstrong briefed the JMRMC on the functions and position of his office as well as the current and future standards and role of the Development Center.

General Armstrong then presented Major Ronald N. Losse who, through the expert use of slides and movie film, narrated the body of the presentation on development and future structural disposition and employment of the Marine Corps. The film included a clear insight into the current and future tactical equipment of the Marine Corps.

Prior to the meeting, General Armstrong met with General Cushman.
